

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The eleventh of June is proclaimed a public holiday as usual.

The Australia seems to have had a rougher passage than usual.

The 300 bales of potatoes and corn brought by the Kinau from Makana is said to be the largest shipment ever made from that port.

Among familiar faces back in our streets, since the Australia's arrival, will be generally welcomed those of Messrs. G. West and R. More.

The American Chinese Treaty, confirmed by the Senate, has gone forward for, it is believed, certain confirmation by the Chinese Government.

Company B of the Honolulu Rifles had a very successful full dress inspection Tuesday evening, the command making a full attendance and a most presentable appearance.

It will be extremely gratifying to residents of all nationalities to hear that Emperor Frederick of Germany is improving and has even been able to use his organs of speech.

Mr. E. Lyman has presented the manager of the Gazette Company with a magnificent specimen of the White Sugar Loaf Pineapple, of a variety imported by the donor from Madeira.

Mr. A. M. Hewitt returned from San Francisco on Tuesday, looking remarkably rugged and hearty after his trip. He was up to his eyes and ears in new stock and all hours of the night.

A private letter from Mr. Harry von Hatz says he has accepted the position of freight clerk on the S. S. City of Peking. "A life on the ocean wave" will likely be a beneficial change for friend Harry.

Mr. P. A. Dias, who is "no chicken" in English composition, is the new managing editor of the "Luso Hawaiian." His countryman, the Portuguese, will find in him a faithful and judicious advocate of their interests.

Mr. J. P. Bowen, in an interview that he designed to grant a Bulletin reporter, says he buried a tin of money and several empty tins then dug them up to make a little fun for a dull period. Some men achieve greatness!

The immigrants by the S. S. City of Peking—numbering 258, of which 256 are Chinese and the rest Japanese—were released from quarantine on Tuesday, with the exception of 60 whose papers remained to be inspected by the police authorities.

From the arrival of heavy mails from the U. S. S. Omaha and Trenton, it is inferred that these vessels will arrive here very shortly. The expectation of the U. S. S. Nipic is less definite, and it is as yet undecided whether the Mexican will return to this port.

Marshal Soper, Captain Alapai, Lieutenant Kamana and Sergeant Naholewa on Tuesday night about 10 o'clock descended upon the shop of Ah Koo, Maunaloa street, captured 571 tins opium and arrested the proprietor, who was released on a $500 bond.

A week's test of the maverick process was decided on for last week at Kealia, Kauai, to be followed by a week's test of the diffusion process, after which results will be compared. The necessary mechanical changes and repairs have been made in the diffusion plant.

A movement is on foot in the Honolulu Association to admit Americans and British to membership, the organization being at present exclusively German. The object is to acquire strength to enable the club to build a home of its own. They still maintain weekly musical practice on Wednesday evenings.

It is expected that two-thirds of the Chinese immigrants, inspected in quarantine on Tuesday, have never been in this country before, notwithstanding the return passports with which they were fortified. Of the remainder, too, it is doubtful if their passports are the ones originally issued to them.

Now comes into court the pursuer of the old Kilaua, denying the claim of the Kinau of having brought the largest consignment of produce from Makana. He says that, when the Uluapalaka plantation was running, over 1,000 bags of potatoes and 5,000 bags of sugar were laden on the Kilaua in a night.

Dr. J. Mott Smith is welcomed back, after his stay of over three years in the United States, looking as hale and hearty as when he left. The doctor, it will be remembered, was one of the Hawaiian Commissioners to the New Orleans Exhibition, and has also performed special diplomatic duty for this country in Washington.

Bandmaster Berger has composed two new marches—one named "Vandalia," dedicated to Rear-Admiral Kimberly and officers of the United States flagship for which the piece is called; the other named Hawaii, dedicated to Honolulu. These marches were played at the opening of the Legislature and the G. A. R. Memorial Day parade.

A person who never takes stock in dreams the other night had a vision in his dreams of his Waltham watch being in a bad way—the face smashed and paper clogging the works. He awoke to discover that the timepiece was on strike from the mainspring breaking, besides which the watchmaker pronounced the watch in sad need of cleaning.

As the Memorial Day parade was reforming for the march home at the Nunan Cemetery, there came near being a very disastrous stampede. The horse attached to Mr. H. W. Schmidt's family carriage, in charge of the coachboy named Ramsey, took fright and bolted into the dense throng of carriages that lined both sides of the avenue. Striking the bank on the border of the road, the carriage was completely wrecked. George Patterson's hack was struck, breaking the hind wheel, and a spring, and upsetting three passengers out. Mr. Schmidt's carriage fell against the rear of the corps of Marines scattering them in confusion. A horse and a dog had fallen among them. Horses were starting on all sides, but a few cool heads restored order without further damage.

Experts are employed by the Finance Committee on the public accounts.

Dr. Chas. A. Peterson has resigned his position as Government physician on Mokai.

The Mariposa would seem to be always in luck for distinguishing herself creditably.

There was a reception and dance on board H. N. M. S. Silveren Krus on Tuesday afternoon.

The Library Association acknowledges the receipt of a handsome present of books from Mr. F. B. Oat.

Five dollars a share dividend is payable at Messrs. C. Brewer & Co.'s upon Wailuku Sugar Company's stock.

Purser Thomas Smith of the Mariposa is cordially thanked for Colonial files, steamer report and other favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur, the death of whose young boy is announced elsewhere, formerly lived on the island of Maui.

The 61 Chinese with doubtful passports are still held at the quarantine grounds and will likely be returned to China.

The base of the new unfinished Kamehameha monument was profusely decked with floral tributes on Memorial Day.

A dividend of one dollar a share is payable at Messrs. C. Brewer & Co.'s on Hawaiian Agricultural Company's stock.

Mr. S. P. Simonds and Miss Henrietta Tregloan have been married, and will live on King street. Accept with much joy.

Using an intended voyage of Mr. A. Marques to Europe, the Luso Hawaiian has been transferred to a Portuguese company.

His Grace Archbishop Redwood of Wellington, N. Z., is a passenger on the Mariposa. He put up at the Hotel Saturday with his Secretary, Father Patterson.

There was a heap of gold coin on a spread of certificates, lying before the Deputy Marshal in the Police Court on Friday afternoon. It was Ah Koo's fine of $400 for dealing with opium.

Friday evening an endorsement rank was duly organized in connection with Mystic Lodge, No. 2, K. of P., by the election of Z. K. Myers, President, and F. Waldron, Secretary.

Perry's "Waterford Colt" beat Houghton's "Ivanhoe" by about three-quarters of a length in 1:21 in the three-quarter mile dash at the Park on Saturday. The time to the half distance was 50 1/2 seconds.

Mr. W. C. Wilder has received an order from the United States War Department for the sum of $120.00 to indemnify him for the expense of transportation home from the battle field of Gettysburg, twenty-five years ago.

A lawyer and legislator sent a message into a certain gathering the other day, saying he had not cheek enough to go in himself. Whereupon a bystander remarked that such modesty in the profession was a revelation.

Just after the incipient stampede at the cemetery on Wednesday, a young gentleman on horseback was gently upbraided by a lady for riding among the throng. He replied that "this affair is not on wheels." "No, but it is on heels," was the witty rejoinder.

A Chinese witness in a case between his countrymen, heard in the Supreme Court, testified to the existence in Honolulu of a company of two or three hundred people, a special function of which was to collect and send money—as the interpreter put it—to a religious man in China.

In noticing magazines for May, the Illustrated London News has the following with reference to the Atlanta: "The White Man's Foot." Mr. Grant Allen's story of an adventure on the verge of the tremendous volcanic crater of Mauna Loa, in Hawaii, may vie with the conceptions of Mr. Rider Haggard.

His Majesty conferred the Commandership of the Order of Kalakaua on Captain Jockes, and the Companionship of that Order on Lieutenant Van Soeters and Mr. J. H. Pary, Netherlands Consul, at dinner in the Palace on the eve of the departure of H. N. M. S. Silveren Krus for Java.

Captain Francis J. Brown, of the Japanese steamship Takasago Maru, has brought with him a magnificent model of a Japanese house, artistically worked by a Japanese, and he presented the curiosity to His Majesty the King on Saturday as a memento of His Majesty's visit to Yokohama a few years ago.

Purser A. C. Simerson, of the steamer W. G. Hall, reported two heavy shocks of earthquake felt at Kau, Hawaii, on Thursday week before last. Also that the Volcano is very active, especially on last Tuesday night. While the steamer was at anchor at Honouapou, the smoke was plainly visible from the steamer's deck.

The Minister of the Interior has put his foot in it—that is, in a dog's mouth. He was out at the Lunatic Asylum, when a snapping dog assailed him. The Minister kicked at the cur with only too true an aim. His foot entered squarely between the canine's jaws, and the teeth met through the Ministerial shoe, between two toes, but, strange as fortune, without making the slightest scratch on the skin.

The horse race announced in this morning's Advertiser, between N. Shinner's Ivanhoe Jr. and D. Davis' Lydy L. half-mile dash, came off Tuesday afternoon at Kapiolani Park. It was a good race, won by Ivanhoe Jr. by half a length in 58 1/2 seconds. Another race of the same kind was got up between Shinner's "Conspiracy" and Davis' "Nellie," which the latter won by about a length in 54 seconds. A small group of sporting men witnessed the races.

Purser Ross of the steamer Mikahala, reports that the fish in the Nounou pond, at Wahiawa, Kauai, are dying by the thousands. The cause of this piscatorial fatality, as the natives believe, is due to the renewed activity of the volcano at Kilaua, which they suppose has a subterranean connection with Kauai. The pond, situated near the shore, is densely covered with dead fish floating about, such as aamaa, aua-ana, akule, etc. A bottle filled with water from the pond has been forwarded to Prof. L. L. Van Slyke of Oahu College, for analysis.

The Hazard has brought a lot of South Sea laborers.

The mail sent forward by the steamship Mariposa for San Francisco comprised 4,000 letters and 850 papers.

A new departure in exports is reported. Honoluluans have been sending grapes to their friends in San Francisco.

The band did not play the Mariposa off on account of a detachment being engaged at the rehearsal of the native Sunday schools.

Mr. W. H. Greenhalgh has purchased the stock and goodwill of Mr. T. G. Tatum's book and stationery business, Fort street.

Hawaiian teachers have a liberal offer from the Oceanic Steamship Co. in reduced round trip fare to visit the National Teachers' Convention in San Francisco.

On Sunday afternoon, May 27th, while Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner and son were returning from a drive, their horse shied and threw all three out. Dr. J. K. Smith was at once sent for and found all of them slightly bruised, but no bones broken.

They had a very fortunate escape, and had it not been for their presence of mind there might have been more serious results to chronicle. At last accounts Mr. and Mrs. Turner and child had fully recovered.

A Great Disappointment.

One of the best audiences, in point of numbers as well as character—including many representatives of church, state, and foreign countries—assembled to witness the announced performance of Mr. Washington Irving Bishop, the world-renowned mind-reader, on Saturday evening. Yet a serious disappointment was in store for the assemblage, that, after being kept waiting an hour later than the advertised time of opening, was compelled to disperse without the other side of the contract being fulfilled. Announced and introduced by Mr. W. G. Ashley, the appointment of a large committee, that was with a little trouble found as follows, the members thereof taking seats on the stage: Hous. A. J. Judd, W. J. Smith, J. B. Atherton, A. Jaeger and G. H. Dole; Rev. S. E. Bishop, Drs. Emerson, Day and Peterson; Messrs. H. W. Schmidt, C. O. Berger, E. Muller, John F. Smith, G. P. Wilder and Thos. J. King.

When the committee was complete at ten minutes to nine Mr. Bishop again came to the front, and acted and talked several minutes, so strangely that the audience, as if by a common impulse, rose and streamed out of the door. A letter elsewhere from Dr. Day shows that the intending performer—whose earnings on the occasion were to be for the benefit of the British Benevolent Society, the American Relief Fund and the Liliuokalani Educational Society—had imprudently taken an overdose of cocaine, that completely upset him. Mr. Bishop was immediately taken to the Hotel, where Dr. Day, who called Dr. Trousseau in consultation, was with him all night. It is satisfactory to learn that Mr. Bishop on Sunday fully recovered his senses, although suffering from partial paralysis. An advertisement intimates that reparation of the community's disappointment will be made, if possible, next week.

Some rough persons from the gallery besieged the box office at the dispersal of the audience. They broke in the window and Mr. Brown hastily scooped up the receipts and retreated, but Marshal Soper appeared on the scene and ended the disturbance.

House Notes.

Noble Smith has the finest table on the floor.

Rep. Kamanoha got in the first bill and the first interrogatory to a Minister.

Tuition fees in Government Schools seem to be doomed this time.

The Interpreter is in magnificent condition.

The march of business Wednesday was on double-quick time.

Rep. Kamanoha has the least use for a chair, so far, of any one of the assembled wisdom.

The Judiciary Committee is loaded with gentlemen of the legal profession. Will they agree? We'll see.

The indications are that not more than 999 petitions and resolutions on leprosy will be brought forward.

During the first two hours the House was in actual business, eight officers were elected, the rules of the House adopted and thirteen committees appointed; forty-two notices of new bills, four departmental and bureau reports, three resolutions, four questions for the Minister of Interior to answer, and six bills read a first time have been tabled.

Mr. Bishop's Monument.

The Kamehameha School for Boys has issued a four-page circular from its own types and press, giving full information regarding the institution, including calendar and list of students. Most noteworthy of all the features of the circular is its own creditable mechanical execution, showing that the instruction given in printing at the school is no slipshod matter. The pages have a neat, well-jointed border, the composition of the title page is artistic, and the whole job such as would not discredit any printing house. Rev. W. B. Olsson, the Principal, is to be congratulated upon this evidence of the efficiency of the school in its technical department. It is announced in the circular that Miss M. E. Hillier and Mr. Levi Lyman will join the faculty at the beginning of the school year in September.

Advertiser and Gazette.

Since the change took place in the proprietorship of the DAILY ADVERTISER, large editions have been issued, varying from 700 to over 1,000 copies daily, which have all gone into circulation, without fully satisfying the public demand. On the dates of May 31 and June 23, not a copy remained on hand at the close of those dates. The news condensed in last week's dailies will all be in the WEEKLY GAZETTE, to be issued on Monday afternoon. It is seldom that a paper is obtainable here that contains so much interesting news as this will.

Cardinal Moran has come out strongly against Chinese exclusion, his strongest argument being that the Chinese are the only race that can work in certain climates of Australia.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL.

Impressive Opening Services—Large Congregation—Status of the Church.

St. Andrew's Cathedral, enlarged in course of construction, on original plans, by the completion of two bays, was opened on Sunday, June 3, for divine worship. The ceremonies consisted of united services of the two Anglican congregations, and were full of interest. Decorations were profuse and lovely, the chancel presenting, wherever the eye rested, a wealth of floral adornment, while vines encircled the massive pillars, hanging also in festoons between, from which depended baskets or bouquets of flowers.

Since the completion of the two bays the chancel, in which the worshippers have hitherto been accommodated, has been re-arranged for its primary purposes, giving the clergy and the choir abundance of space for their respective offices. The opening services comprised Holy Communion at 8:30 and Litany at 9:30 a. m., and united service of praise and thanksgiving at 11:15 a. m. and again at 7 p. m.

At the 11:15 a. m. united service the edifice was crowded with a representative concourse. A double row of chairs in the main aisle was inadequate to seat all who came after the pews were filled. Their Majesties the King and Queen were present, attended by Colonel the Hon. Curtis P. Iaukea, H. M. Chamberlain; also Princess Kaiulani, with her father, Hon. A. S. Cleghorn; several members of the Diplomatic and Consular corps, and a large number of prominent residents out of other denominational bodies.

Following is the order of service, the clergy participating with the preacher in the conduct of devotions being Revs. Alex. Mackintosh, H. H. Gowen and V. H. Kiteat.

Processional Hymn. Savage in C.
Te Deum. Fantasi in F.
Benedictus. Fantasi in F.
Tallis.
Anthem—Break Forth into Joy. Barnby
Hymn—Ten Thousand Times.
Sermon—Rev. Geo. Wallace, B. D.
Hymn—The Church's One Foundation.
Organ Postlude—War March (Abthale).

Rev. George Wallace prefaced his sermon with the following statement regarding the status of the Cathedral:

I bring to you this morning a brief report of what has been given and done in the building of this church. You look upon the completed chancel and two bays of the nave. That which has been done is well done, and will be adequate for many years to the needs of our communion in this city. We are thankful to a kind Providence that no serious accident has happened to any workman while this structure has been in building. The work has been honestly performed. There are no shams anywhere in it, and everything is just what it pretends to be. It is an honest building from gable to foundation.

A simpler building that could have been completed twenty years ago might have been better. A wiser management might have secured it, but to-day we are too full of rejoicing for regrets. We are thankful for this noble temple. We shall go on in good time to furnish it worthily, and leave to posterity its enlargement when there shall be need.

The Building Committee have received from legacies. . . . $7,063 08
Donations from England. . . . 13,888 36
Subscriptions and donations in Honolulu. 20,289 52
Fairs and sales of work by the women. 13,894 15
Offering collections in church. . . . 1,327 80
Interest and sale of stone. 801 04

There is still remaining due to the contractor the sum of $12,000. Towards meeting this we have subscriptions which we hope soon to collect to the amount of $2,000; cash in the hands of the treasurer, $1,200; the promise of the S. P. C. K. of Church of England to complete payment, $2,500.

The amount of $7,000 needs still to be obtained. We have confidence, dear friends, in your generous aid to provide a large portion, if not the whole, of this sum at an early day. Our alms this morning will be given to that end. Your gifts in the past are our best pledges for the present and the unfailing earnest for the future. Give, and it shall be given unto you—"good measure pressed down and running over."

Mr. Wallace took as his text Genesis 28:2—"Surely the Lord is in this place." After a quarter of a century faithful souls there could say they had waited for this day. After patient waiting they saw the happy opening of this splendid, even if uncompleted, edifice. The preacher discoursed at length on the true significance of a church building, what makes genuine churchmanship, and the symbolism of ecclesiastical architecture, adornments and sacred furnishings. He paid a high tribute to the memory of the devoted King and Queen, Kamehameha IV. and Emma, who had devised this great monument of Christianity in this Kingdom. The discourse was extempore and delivered with an eloquence that held the congregation's rapt attention throughout.

The combined choirs of the First and Second congregations, all clad in surplices, rendered the service of praise with power, Mr. Wray Taylor presiding at the organ with his well-known ability. A company of British blue jackets, headed by a platoon of marines, from H. B. M. S. Cormorant, attended the morning service in a body, marching to and from the church.

There was another large congregation at the evening service, when the order of devotions was as follows:

Processional Hymn. Tallis
Magnificat—Single Chant.
Nunc Dimittis—Double Chant.
Anthem—Praise the Lord of Jerusalem.
Hymn—The Church's One Foundation.
Sermon—Rev. Alex. Mackintosh.
Hymn—We Love the Place O God.
Organ Postlude—March in F. W. Taylor.
Rev. Alex. Mackintosh preached an appropriately noble discourse from Isaiah 56:7—"My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people."

The offertories for the building fund at both services amounted to the handsome sum of $700.

The west end of the completed bays of this grand Gothic poem in stone is closed up with redwood well finished in rustic. The windows on either side of the door, in imitation of stained glass, bear pictures of saints. Memorial windows in real stained glass are yet to adorn the edifice. Although far from completed according to the original designs, which are fully set forth in one of the engravings of Bishop Staley's reminiscences—a copy of which is in the Honolulu Library—yet as it stands St. Andrew's Cathedral is a splendid addition to the architecture of the city, a noble monument of its royal founders' religious devotion, and fully adequate to the present requirements of the Anglican communion.

E. O. HALL & SON,
